

1. Tapir Adaptations: Add the following adaptations to fill in the table below:

- Body shape
- Thick skin
- Flexible feet
- Snout for grasping and snorkeling
- Strong jaws and chisel-shaped teeth
- Sensitive hearing
- Good sense of smell
- Active at dawn, dusk or at night
- Good swimmers
- Mud wallowing
- Fast runners
- Leave scent marks
- Whistle and squeak

[illegible]

2. Animals Where I Live

Think of three animals that live in your region (in your backyard, near your home, or in your country). Which adaptations help these animals to survive in their habitat? Fill in your answers in the table below:

Animal Name	Natural Habitat	Physical Adaptation	Behavioral Adaptation	How this Adaptation Helps the Animal Survive